EPC@Partners.inc welcomes you to the first forum entirely focused on Digital printing, electronic tablets, accessories and digital content.

THE THREE PRIZES TO WIN!

At the end of the forum, the company EPC@Partners.inc will award three prizes for innovation.

The first prize relates to the field of digital printing on demand. The jury will consist of professionals and scholars specialists in traditional graphic chain that faces scanning in prepress, press and finishing as in the broadcast.

The second prize concerns the tablets, accessories and digital content. It is all digital or all electronic. Seven awards will be presented for innovation by a jury of professionals of the new digital channel and journalists specialized in the field.

The third prize is the price of the public. Each visitor will vote through a ballot that they will deposit in an urn. This ballot will determine the price of the public and will also be used for a raffle. Visitors will have the opportunity to win an electronic reader, a tablet, accessories and subscriptions to digital content in publishing, the press or in other areas.

PUBLICATION THE TAB-EPAPERWORLD REVIEW

In addition of all of the above, you will get acquainted with the new edition of « The Tab-ePaperWorld Review »:

The International Journal of electronic readers and digital content: Convergence and mobility. This is the first electronic journal specialized in this field. The company EPC@Partners has created it, in autumn 2009, as part of its first forum..

EPC will continue to publish this information resource that aims to portray the players in the digital market through the world.

Indeed, it performs a technology watch on the six main global markets (U.S., European, African, Asian, Oceanic and Oriental) which develop these digital products and services associated with the new communication tools.
